FIVE NEW SUPERIOR COURT CASES

Papers in five new suits were filed Thursday afternoon with the clerk of the superior court in this city.

Mary A. Toland of New London has brought a divorce action against Daniel H. Toland, also of New London. The divorce is asked on grounds of cruelty.

The wife before her marriage was Miss Mary A. West and she was united in marriage with Daniel H. Toland April 26, 1917. She asked a divorce and permission to resume her maiden name.

The S. S. Green Co., Inc. of New York have filed suit for $2,500 damages against the Croton Iron Works. The suit is brought on the common counts.

Isaac Gordon and Yale Shulman, doing a partnership in New York under the name of The Hudson Tailors, have brought a $700 damage suit against B. Berkowitz of New London on the common counts.

A controversy over a boundary line has resulted in a superior court action by Joseph Ziminski of Montville against Edward Ziminski, also of Montville. The plaintiff in the action asks a superior court order establishing the boundary line between his property and adjoining property owned by the defendant. The property in question is located in Montville.

Joe Song of Easton has brought a $2,000 damage suit against Joe Tong of New London on the common counts.

CONTRIBUTORS TO MASONIC HOME XMAS ENTERTAINMENT

Many eastern Connecticut Masonic bodies contributed towards the Christmas dinner and entertainment held Christmas day at the Masonic home in Wallingford. It was truly the brightest day of the year for the members of the home.

The high society family enjoyed the Christmas dinner at noon and at 7:30 p.m. in the evening. Supt. John O. Rowland as Santa Claus presided and H. Wales Lines, president of the board of directors, presided at the 7:30 p.m. dinner. Other guests gave the true Christmas flavor to the entertainment and the ceremony of distribution of gifts.

Ed May of Norwich, one of the members, moved that a vote of thanks be given the donors and the hands were up quickly when Mr. Rowland called for the vote.

Among the eastern Connecticut lodges listed with the organizations which contributed to the success of the entertainment are the following:
